FNA Tribal Home Visiting program uses traditional values to support parents as they raise healthy and happy children.

ELIGIBILITY
Our target population lives within the Fairbanks North Star Borough. We are looking for families with Alaska Native/American Indian children, prenatal to age five, including those who were adopted, and teen parents regardless of ethnicity.

SERVICES OFFERED
• Individualized, culturally sensitive home visits and group meetings
• Developmental screenings
• Resource referrals
• Parent and child resource library
Parents are their children’s first and most influential teachers.

VISION
Honoring Alaska Native culture is the foundation of FNA Tribal Home Visiting program and key to supporting healthy families. Our vision is to create systems of support in order for children to be safe and healthy to reach their full potential.

PROGRAM GOALS
• Successfully connect families to formal and informal supports in the community that meet their needs
• Educate parents about early childhood development and parent/child interaction
• Increase children’s readiness to succeed in school
